The General Education Program (GEP) at Saint Joseph's University involves a distinctive liberal arts education in the Jesuit, Catholic tradition. General education is essential to the University's mission, providing all students with the broad knowledge, essential skills, appreciation of diversity, and ethically informed perspective needed by those who would aspire to be “men and women for others.” The GEP ensures mastery of skills required for further study, exposes students to the principal achievements and problems of the major fields of human learning, and introduces them to new disciplines that they may or may not wish to pursue. The Major Concentration component gives depth in a particular field and is thus a preparation for an effective career or for graduate study in that field.

Free or general electives allow students to pursue interests, explore new fields, or to continue concentration in their major.

The General Education Program (GEP) applies to students who are completing a bachelor's degree through PLS.

The GEP is comprised of Signature Core, Variable Core, Integrative Learning courses and Overlays.

- One course from Religious Studies or Theology that is certified as a Religious Difference course.
- ENG 101 Craft of Language.

Integrative Learning Course

(2 courses required)

- Courses approved for ILC requirements will vary by major. Some majors have specific courses that must be taken.

Overlays

Students admitted Summer 2016 or later to a BLS Program are required to complete at least one of the three GEP overlays:

1. Ethics Intensive
2. Writing Intensive, or
3. Diversity, Globalization, Non-Western Area Studies.

Please note that PLS students admitted prior to the Fall 2014 semester may have slightly different GEP curriculum requirements as communicated by the PLS Advising Office at the time of admission. Students are encouraged to contact the PLS Advising Office with any curriculum questions. PLS students who are completing degree requirements for a major offered through the Day School are required to complete the GEP for Day Students.

Program Requirements

The following pages describe the courses and credits required for the various programs offered in the College of Arts and Sciences Professional and Liberal Studies Program. PLS students who are completing degree requirements for a major in the Day School should consult the College of Arts & Sciences Undergraduate Day section of this catalog.
