HUMAN RESOURCES AND PEOPLES MANAGEMENT MAJOR

The Human Resources and People Management (HRPM) degree prepares students for careers in the human resources (HR) management field by not only teaching students the functional knowledge, but by developing the skills necessary for implementation of strategic and legally defensible HR practices in contemporary business organizations. Human resources management involves the attraction, retention, development, and deployment of an organization's most important asset: its human capital. There has never been a more exciting time to join this growing field as organizations increasingly differentiate themselves through their people. Students in the HRPM program are well prepared to take HR roles as generalists, employee relations specialists, compensation specialists, human capital analysts, trainers, recruiting specialists, and other specialist and generalist roles in the human resources field. In addition, some of our alumni have chosen to follow a more general management track after graduation. Our curriculum is formally aligned with the guidelines published by the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), the world's largest Human Resources professional organization. SHRM provides education, research, advocacy, and certification. Our alignment with the SHRM Body of Knowledge was examined by SHRM prior to our certification as an aligned major, and demonstrates to future employers that they can rely on the fact that our students have been educated in all the areas considered essential for a human resources practitioner.

Learning Goals and Objectives

Goal 1: Communication - Students will communicate effectively through written and oral modes of expression across academic, professional, and social contexts using appropriate technology

Goal 2: Critical Thinking and Inquiry – Students will think critically and construct reasoned arguments to support their positions using skills appropriate to the context, such as deductive reasoning, scientific inquiry, quantitative reasoning, aesthetic judgment, or critical examination of form, style, content and meaning.

Goal 3: Ethics, Social Justice, and Ignatian Values – Students will assess ethical issues and social justice within the framework of Ignatian values and will articulate theoretically informed responses to these issues.

Goal 4: Diversity - Students will engage respectfully in a local and global context, with diverse human beliefs, abilities, experiences, identities, or cultures

Goal 5: Discipline or Program Specific Competencies - Students will acquire the essential knowledge and skills to succeed and make well-reasoned judgments personally, professionally, within the business discipline of human resource management and people management in general.

The traditional undergraduate programs include 40 courses distributed across three components: A General Education component divided into Signature Courses, Variable Courses, and an Integrative Learning requirement; a Major and Divisional component, and Free Electives. In addition to course requirements as specified in each area, students must complete one certified course in each of the following overlay areas:

1. Diversity, Globalization or Non-western Area Studies,
2. Ethics Intensive, and
3. Writing Intensive. Overlay requirements are part of the forty-course requirement.

General Education Signature Courses

See this page about Signature courses (https://academiccatalog.sju.edu/curricula/#signature). Six courses

General Education Variable Courses

See this page about Variable courses (https://academiccatalog.sju.edu/curricula/#variable). Six to Nine courses

General Education Overlays

See this page about Overlays (https://academiccatalog.sju.edu/curricula/#overlay).

General Education Integrative Learning Component

See this page about Integrative Learning Component (https://academiccatalog.sju.edu/curricula/#integrative-learning). Three courses:

NOTE: In no case may an ILC course be double counted towards completing other requirements of the Managing Human Capital major.

NOTES

1. Check the current Academic Catalog for any pre-requisites to the courses. You are responsible to complete any necessary pre-requisites.
2. Check the Course Schedule for overlays as many ILCs are approved overlay courses.
3. Check with the appropriate department for course scheduling as not all courses are offered every semester.
